on mission together.

One of the ways we are here to encourage and support the pastors is with our Pastor's Lunch here at the Association Building on the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 12 pm. This is a time of prayer and encouragement for pastors because I am convinced that pastors should never pastor alone.

For those on our Interim Pastor list and those interested in being an Interim Pastor, we are teaming up with Atlantic Baptist Association and South Roanoke Baptist Association for Transitional Interim Ministry Training. The Transitional Interim Pastor is there to intentionally help walk a church through the process of church transition during the interim. By completing this training you will become a certified Transitional Interim Pastor through NC Baptists. The dates for this training is a Monday and Tuesday, January 23-24 from 9 am-5 pm. Lunch is included. The location is being ironed out but it will be in the Kinston area. This training will be led by Allan Blume who is heading up the Transitional Interim Ministry for NC Baptists. This will be a training that I believe will pay dividends in our churches. If you are interested or need more information please let me know.

Lastly (and certainly not least), we will be having a Pastor, Staff, and Spouses Appreciation Dinner on Friday, February 3rd at 6:30. We will be mailing out an invitation and information on this dinner in the coming weeks. Simply, we love our pastors, church staff, and their spouses and we want to show them our appreciation for all they do.

Did You Know...?

Starting in January, Keith will officially be referred to as our "Association Mission Strategist" or "AMS", retiring the former "Director of Missions" title. This is consistent with a recommendation made in 2018 for Association Offices throughout the Southern Baptist Convention. This title change is reflected within our updated Constitution & By-laws, which were approved at our Annual Meeting in October.

NBA Annual Meeting Recap

The 94th Annual Meeting of Neuse Baptist Association took place on Sunday, October 23 at 6:00 PM and was hosted by Rivermont. The theme for the evening was “On Mission Together”.

Attendance Report, based on sign-ins: Attendance: 97; Churches represented: 19 of 42; Pastors present: 13; Church representatives present: 35; Visitors present: 45.

Representatives from the Baptist State Convention, Baptist Children’s Homes, NC Baptist Aging Ministry, International Mission Board and Baptist Retirement Homes were also present and briefly shared about their ministries.

The choirs from Rivermont, Deep Run, and Love Memorial shared special music throughout the meeting.

Highlights of the Business Session include:

- Membership motion for Gateway Community Church of Pikeville was unanimously passed, making Gateway the newest addition to Neuse Baptist Association. There are now 42 active churches in NBA.
- An affirmative vote for the new Constitution & By-laws of Neuse Baptist Association.
- An affirmative vote for the Nominating Committee Report, which includes new Ministry Teams and Leaders for NBA.
- An affirmative vote for the proposed budget for 2023.

The Annual Message was delivered by an IMB Missionary to Asia, “Mr. Lee”, who opened with the statement, “At the end of our time together, if you don’t walk away encouraged to trust God more, then I have failed this evening.” After sharing several of the challenges and victories that his family have experienced while serving as missionaries, he ended with “Trust Him. Know that He loves you. As you go to those hard and difficult people who may not accept you, know that Jesus is with you. Rest in that. Don’t be afraid to love people lavishly.” His message stirred the hearts of many in attendance.

At the meeting’s end, Rivermont’s Hospitality Committee graciously served a variety of refreshments and desserts in the church Fellowship Hall, and the representatives from our NC Baptist entities had tables and generous giveaways prepared for those who were interested.

Many thanks to the individuals who helped to make this year’s Annual Meeting the great success that it was.

Notes on Baptism

We are nearing another year around the sun and we have accomplished so much together this past year. As the Annual Church Profiles have been coming in I've had the chance to start looking at the numbers and trends. As I have done this, there are so many things we should be overjoyed about. One of the things I am happy about is 54 baptisms this past year! Go, God! You may ask why am I so focused on this number. I am focused on this number because it is the only number I can track that tells me about people coming to saving faith in Christ. Now I've got a challenge for us: what if this time next year we have 100 baptisms? I know this is a bold step, yet we serve the God of the bold. To meet and exceed 100 baptisms over the next year, each church simply needs to see 2-3 baptisms over the next year. This is us celebrating 100 people coming to faith over the next year and I don't know about you, but what is greater than celebrating people coming to saving faith in Jesus? My friends, this is a goal that we can achieve, and I believe we can exceed it.

Let me give you some thoughts on how we can achieve and exceed this goal:

1. Pray. Everything must start and end in prayer. I want to challenge us to be praying that the Lord will stir our passions to see people come to faith. Pray that He would stir the hearts of those in our communities and even within our church with the Good and Great News of Jesus. Pray with confident faith, that the Lord would send a harvest.
2. Go. Jesus tells us in Matthew 28:19, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations... (ESV)" Again in Acts 1:8, "...you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." John 20:21 Jesus tells us, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent Me, even so, I am sending you." Further, we have a similar verse in Mark 16:15. My friends, we are to be "Sent Ones". We are to be "Sent Ones" in our neighborhood, our community, our state, our nation, and our world. We as believers and as churches must shift our mindset from our communities coming to the church, to the church going to the community. In short, we must develop the mind of being a missionary in the world around us. Here is the rub, for the longest time we didn't have to have the mind of a missionary because our communities came to the church; it was just part of the cultural norm. Sadly, this is no longer the cultural norm. The cultural norm is to not go to church. My friends, we have the wonderful joy just like the early church, to go and show the love of Jesus in real and tangible ways, with the one, simple goal of showing the love of Jesus to our community. Maybe this is as simple as finding opportunities to love your neighbors or community at different points in the year. Maybe this is setting up a consistent 2nd Saturday Serve. Maybe this is a ministry blitz day where you have multiple serve ministries going at the same time, some of you may know this as Operation Inasmuch, though the name you give it is secondary. Maybe it is setting up community partnerships such as with a community school, shelter, pregnancy center, or food kitchen.
3. Share. As we go and show, we are to also go and tell. While we must go and show, it isn't enough to go and show. Our go-and-show must have a purpose, a point. Our community must know the reason for our go-and-show. We accomplish this by telling about the love of Jesus. How are we strategically and consistently telling people about the love of Jesus? From a strategic and consistent standpoint, I encourage pastors and churches to teach one evangelism tool in how to tell people about Jesus. I would run out of paper telling you about all the different evangelism tools like FAITH, Evangelism Explosion, CWT, NET, Gospel Tracts, etc., etc. For those especially interested and gifted in telling people about Jesus, having multiple tools in the toolbox can be helpful, yet I find from a general standpoint one tool that is emphasized is adequate for the vast majority of believers. As a pastor, I taught my church the easy tool 3 Circles, which is so simple a believer can share Jesus on a napkin in a restaurant.
4. Prepare. As we Go, Show, and Share, we must also prepare. By preparing we tell the church and new believers about the obedient step of baptism. We talk about baptism during the welcome, during the sermon, in new believer classes, in our Sunday school classes, and our youth and children's ministry. We talk about it, put it in front of people, and remind them about it. By preparing I am also talking about preparing with anticipation for baptisms. Is your baptistry ready to be filled? Is your changing area ready to be used?
5. Celebrate. Jesus tells us in Luke 15:10, "Just so, I tell you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents (ESV)." When people believe in Jesus, do we adequately celebrate? When people are baptized, do we adequately celebrate? These are big things, and therefore need to be celebrated. Let me also share with you a leadership principle that I believe is applicable, that which is celebrated gets repeated. If you don't want an action or result to occur again, you refrain from celebrating or making much of it, yet if you want an action or result to continue to occur, you celebrate and make a lot about it. When the church sees baptisms celebrated, they see the importance of baptism.

Let me also share with you one more way for us to achieve and exceed 100 baptisms for this next year. On April 16th, we are having a statewide baptism emphasis Sunday for North Carolina Baptist, called Fill the Tank. One of my favorite things about this date is it is the Sunday after Easter. What a fantastic time for Baptisms!

I'm ready to see the Lord do a God-sized thing within our churches, and I have confident faith we are going to see Him show up in a big way. As we advance, I am here to help with any of the steps above or in any way I can. Simply let me know. ~Keith

Located in the heart of Goldsboro on Ash street in the Sunrise Shopping Center, InJoy Thrift Store has two stores in Goldsboro: a clothing & housewares store as well as a furniture/bookstore.

InJoy Thrift Stores was initiated by Christian businessmen and women with a goal of supporting local and international Christian ministries. InJoy's mission is to not just run a successful thrift store, but to honor God first and foremost in all that we do. We want to reach the least, the last, and the lost, and we do this by increasing missions funding and creating fulfilling volunteer opportunities in the Christian community by operating thrift stores.

We get our name from Jesus' words in John 15:11 where He says "I have spoken these things to you so that My joy may be in you and your joy may be complete."

Income created by the sale of goods after normal business expenses creates significant income for Community Christian ministries chosen by a local Board of Directors. Half of our proceeds are designated to help an organization called DOOR International (Deaf Opportunity and Outreach). They help translate the Bible into sign language. There are currently over 70 million deaf people in the world and less than 2% know God.

You can help be a local missionary in three ways:

- Shop InJoy.
- Donate gently used clothing or furniture to InJoy.
- Volunteer at InJoy.

We have so many tasks that need to be done. We say if you can hang a piece of clothing, or plug in a lamp, we can use you. Maybe it's to vacuum or even to help with washing dishes or taking out the trash. If God has laid on you a servant's heart, we would love to talk to you @ 919-947-5749.

Our hours are Monday through Saturday from 9 am to 5:30 pm. Every day we open with devotion and prayer at 8:45. There's a place for you at InJoy!
